q comment: EUROVISION ON TOUR

I was privileged during the month to interview Senhit - the host of EUROVISION ON TOUR to discuss her involvement in the Eurovision tour in Australia and her support for the LGBTQ+ community.

Senhit has a dual role in the Eurovision tour: singer and host, marking her first tour experience. She praised Eurovision for its inclusivity, diversity, and positive impact on the LGBTQ+ community.

The tour will visit Brisbane, Melbourne, and Sydney, celebrating Eurovision with multiple artists.

When we spoke about the LGBTIQ+ community, Senhit emphasized the importance of supporting the LGBTQ+ community as a universal responsibility.

Eurovision Tour in Australia is her first experience as both singer and host for a Eurovision tour. She hopes to extend stay in Sydney for 4-5 days after the tour

On the subject of Eurovision's Impact and Significance, Senhit described it as the "biggest event" where people feel safe and in a comfort zone. It brings together 40+ countries, transcending language, genre, and cultural barriers.

When we got onto the subject of her support for the LGBTIQ+ community (on a personal level) she views supporting the community as a natural, essential action for everyone. Senhit has been a very strong ally for many years and utilizes her platform and "microphone" to advocate for the community and praises Eurovision for its growth in authenticity and support for the LGBTQ+ community.

Urge Miami Festival Returns Thanksgiving Weekend with the Steamiest Beach Party on the Sands of South Beach By Spencer White

URGE Miami Festival returns this Thanksgiving weekend with three massive nighttime events and two sizzling daytime fetes including the Royal Palm Pool Party and the legendary Beach Party on the sands of South Beach. The LGBTQ+ festival weekend will take place November 29-December 2 and will feature a list of the world's most famous circuit DJs playing at the city's most prestigious venues. "URGE is not only a music festival," says one of the event's producers, Luis Morera. "Throughout the years, it has become a place where friends, old and new, meet up to celebrate gratitude. URGE offers a space like no other where everyone has the freedom to express themselves while dancing to the sounds of the greatest DJs of our time."

URGE Miami Festival kicks off Friday, November 29 at 10pm with the Miami premiere of GUAPO, a Sao Paulo, Brazil-based festival brand that has become world-renowned for its happy and fresh vibe. The event will take place at M3 Studios, a venue that has hosted performances by artists like Shakira and Maluma. Even Beyonce recorded scenes for her music video at M3! GUAPO's producers are promising a level of production that has not been seen before in Miami. It will showcase the sounds of GUAPO's resident DJ Adham, along with Brazilian DJ Liza Rodriguez and - no stranger to the URGE brand - Mexico DJ Jesus Montanez.

The Saturday pool party will take place at the weekend's host hotel, The Royal Palm South Beach. The annual bash is one of URGE Festivals' most anticipated events. "Patrons love to dance under the Miami sun with the flexibility and comfort of being just a few steps from their hotel room," Raul Griffith comments, one of the festival producers. The DJs spinning at this year's party will be Yazz Burrell, who launched his DJ career at Miami's Score and URGE, gay influencer and DJ Eliad Cohen and DJ/Producer Jerac.

The revelry continues Saturday night with URGE Miami Festival's main event at M3 studios. "We'll be celebrating the brand's 13th birthday," Morera says. "I won't spoil the surprise. You must come and witness the magic!" Edu Quintas will make his triumphant return to the URGE booth, direct from the energetic Brazilian metropolis, Rio de Janeiro. He will be joined by world renowned Israeli DJ/ Producer Mor Abrahami and Miami's own DJ/Producer YORDI.

This year's Beach Party will be very different from year's past. "We are taking a very different approach to this year's beach bash, bringing an innovative look and higher level of production," says Morera. DJ/Producer Joe Gauthreaux will headline alongside international festival DJ Erik Villar.

URGE Miami Festival's closing party will be URGE AFTER DARK, an after-hours spectacular which, for the first time, will feature three headliners: Danny Verde, House of Labs and Alison Nunes.

This year's host hotel is the Royal Palm South Beach. With 400 rooms, more than a quarter of which are suites, the Royal Palm is one of South Beach's largest hotels, superbly located directly on the beach on Collins at the end of Ocean Drive. It offers a superior experience and will serve as the location of URGE Miami Festival's Welcome Center and Saturday Pool Party. Complimentary transportation will be provided from/to Royal Palm South Beach for all weekend events. This year the Royal Palm South Beach is offering a very aggressive room rate of only $169 per night.

A portion of the proceeds from URGE Miami Festival will benefit Miami Beach Pride, an organization that celebrates the unique spirit and culture of the city's LGBTQ+ population.

Tickets for URGE Miami Festival are available now at www.Urgemiamifestival.com

q connect: CONNECTing FOR A CAUSE

'CONNECT' is Australia's first federally funded program that dispenses free HIV self-test kits from vending machines. The project aims to strengthen pathways to services, treatment and support while addressing barriers to testing experienced by newly arrived migrants, international students, and people from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds.

Led by SAMESH since March 2022, and now Thorne Harbour Health SA, the eight vending machines around the Adelaide metropolitan area have been gaining traction with people from all walks of life wanting to self-test for free. Accessing a HIV self-test kit is simple, anonymous, completely safe and includes links to confirmatory testing and care. Just head to one of the vending machine locations, scan the QR code, answer a few confidential questions and provide a valid mobile number, then follow the instructions provided.

As the most successful project of its kind globally, CONNECT is proving that the distribution of free HIV self-test kits via vending machines increases testing amongst priority populations. This plays an important role in reaching the UNAIDS targets in Australia. The Commonwealth Department of Health and Aged Care recently approved funding for a national rollout over 2 years, so CONNECT will be available in every state and territory nation-wide very soon.

SAMESH is a partnership between SHINE SA and Thorne Harbour Health that provides community-based support, education and training about Sexual Health and HIV.

For more information including vending machine locations head to the CONNECT webpage: <https://samesh.org.au/connect-free-hiv-test-kits>

q comedy: DANNY WILL DIE ALONE

Queer as a Bell
Jordan Bell Stars in the Second Season of the hilarious Queer Series, Danny Will Die Alone
By Tom Tietjen

The hit Dekkoo series, Danny Will Die Alone, is back with its highly anticipated second season. Building on the success of the first, the new season takes viewers on another laugh-out-loud journey, diving deeper into the complexities of gay modern dating with his signature blend of outrageous comedy and emotional depth.

In the first season, Danny, played by Jack Tracy, was portrayed as more of an angry archetype. This season, he is a more realized and fleshed-out person, thanks in large part to the addition of actor Jordan Bell who plays Matty, Danny's regular hookup buddy and foil. Matty serves as Danny's go-to for intimacy between his dating misadventures, and the chemistry between Bell and Tracy is undeniable. Jordan Bell explains more from his home in NYC.

How does Danny Will Die Alone reflect modern dating within the LGBTQ+ community?

I think the show captures the real highs and lows of modern dating. It's not always a fairytale or a happy ending—though, let's be honest, there's usually some kind of happy ending, if you know what I mean. There's frustration and uncertainty because people are often looking out for themselves and not always on the same page. And I love that the show doesn't shy away from exploring sex kinks or things you don't always see in mainstream media. It embraces the chaos of queer dating today, but with plenty of laughs and heart.

What drew you to the role of Matty?

Jordan Bell: I was drawn to Matty because, on the surface, he's sharp and aggressively funny, but underneath that exterior, there's so much vulnerability and openness. He's incredibly layered. The series really captures the reality of modern dating: juggling multiple connections at once, whether they're friends with benefits, purely physical, or something that blurs the lines. Matty's tough exterior is his way of keeping himself safe and sane in all that chaos. I found him really compelling and loved the challenge of exploring both his humor and his heartache.

What was it like working alongside Jack Tracy? Your on-screen chemistry is undeniable.

Jordan Bell: Working with Jack is such a gift. Being both the writer and star, he brings so much understanding to every moment. We spent a ton of time together on set, and he's an incredibly generous scene partner, always up for exploring and pushing boundaries in ways that felt natural and safe. The connection we built offscreen definitely shows up in our on-screen chemistry. It's something special.

Season Two balances outrageous comedy with deeper emotional moments, exploring some complex themes like polyamory and gender norms.

Jordan Bell: I think one of the best things about Danny Will Die Alone is how it tackles these complex themes while balancing comedy and real emotional depth. It's important to show the diversity of relationships and identities we see today. There's no one-size-fits-all when it comes to love or identity. Every person and relationship are unique, and as long as there's mutual respect, there's room for all kinds of connections and dynamics.

What do you think Matty adds to Danny's journey, how does their dynamic shape the season?

Jordan Bell: Matty is the total opposite of Danny. While Danny's more biting, Matty is short, abrupt, and straight to the point. But that contrast is what makes their dynamic so fiery and fun. Matty brings a fresh perspective that balances out Danny's cynicism, and together, they help each other navigate the wild world of gay dating in New York. It's that push-and-pull between them that really drives the season.

The two share some pretty steamy scenes!

Jordan Bell: Oh, definitely! My very first day on set, I had to strip down to nothing while Jack delivered a monologue directly into my crotch. Talk about diving right in! By the end of filming, we spent so much time together in various stages of undress that it just felt normal. Those intimate scenes brought Jack and me closer, and that connection really helped ignite our on-screen chemistry. It was wild but so much fun!

Do you see Matty and Danny turning into something more than a casual hook-up?

Jordan Bell: There's obviously some great chemistry between them, and keeping it casual is part of the fun. But as they spend more time together, who knows? Things might shift, and they might even grow a little deeper. It'll be interesting to see how it all plays out.

With season three already in the works, what are you most excited to explore next in Matty's journey?

Jordan Bell: I'm really excited about what's next for Matty! I'm curious to see how his relationship with Danny evolves — whether they dive into even more outrageous sexual escapades or if it turns into something deeper. We've only gotten a glimpse of Matty's world so far, but I'm ready to dive in and meet more of the characters in his life. And with all the hints about his adventurous sex life, I'd love to see what kind of trouble Matty gets into on the weekends. It's going to be a wild ride, and I'm here for it!

New episodes of Danny Will Die Alone season 2 will release weekly beginning November 14 on Dekkoo. Follow the series on Instagram @dannywilldiealone

q business: AI POWERED CLEANING

Oclean launches award-winning AI-powered X Ultra S Smart Sonic Electric toothbrush in Australia

In one of the most anticipated product arrivals of the year, oral healthcare specialists Oclean have now launched their unique, groundbreaking and award-winning range of products in Australia, led by the AI-powered X Ultra S Smart Sonic Electric Toothbrush.

Oclean Asia Pacific MD Chris Wang explained, "Oclean products have been successful in many countries around the world due to their unique technology, so there was a huge demand for the range from our Australian partners and consumers alike. So, I'm delighted to announce that we have officially partnered with DSTech and Shaver Shop for our Australian launch, starting with our Best of CES award-winning AI-powered X Ultra S Smart Sonic Electric Toothbrush."

Oclean, together with their partners at Shaver Shop, saw a gap in the Australian market for their affordable, high-tech range, consisting of aesthetically focussed products that don't compromise on quality or functionality.

For Oclean, extensive consumer research clearly demonstrated that tech-savvy Australian consumers were looking for better, more aesthetically pleasing oral care products with efficient cleaning, longer battery life, competitive pricing and cutting-edge technology.

For better performance and cleaning, the X Ultra S uses its proprietary and powerful Maglev 3.0 motor with TurboClean function. The Maglev 3.0, designed by Oclean, features an algorithm delivering up to 42,000RPM and, critically, maintains consistent power at any battery level.

The Maglev 3.0 has been proven three times more effective than a conventional sonic motor, whilst being ultra quiet in use, at less than 45dB.

We then move into where the real smarts are, starting with unique interactive brushing controlled by a fully interactive touchscreen, with five distinctive modes and festival greetings. These smart features work seamlessly with the Oclean Care+ app as well as Apple Health and WeatherKit.

In another first, the X Ultra S provides its users with an AI voice guide that works in real-time with Oclean's self-developed smart chip and bone conduction technology, creating better brushing habits, a far better brushing experience and overall better results.

Then comes the solution to one of the biggest gripes for users of electric toothbrushes – a long battery life. Unlike many of its competitors, the X Ultra S easily provides up to 40 days of battery life while taking just 4.5 hours to fully charge. This, combined with its lightweight design, even while housed in its smart case, makes it ideal for home and travel.

Making the cleaning experience even more efficient are Oclean's three exclusive brush heads – Ultra Clean, Ultra White and Ultra Gum Care with FlexFit tech. With these brushes and their clever, shock-absorbing rubber coating, the X Ultra S also improves optimal interdental cleaning and provides gum protection.

As if all of that tech was not enough, users of the X Ultra S can access instant feedback about their brushing technique on the toothbrush's smart touchscreen as well as brushing reports in the Oclean Care+ app, for an even more professional, personalised and efficient experience.

The Oclean X Ultra S Smart Sonic Electric Toothbrush comes in black and green with three replacement brush head refills and a two-year warranty. It's available now from Shaver Shop stores and at www.shavershop.com.au for an RRP of $449.95.

Oclean X Ultra S key features

- Realtime AI Voice Guide
- Smart touchscreen provides instant feedback
- 3 times more effective cleaning from Maglev 3.0 motor with consistent power
- FlexFit Tech brush heads
- 5 modes + customised modes
- Mould-resistant nano coating and starlight design
- Up to 40 days battery life

About Oclean

Oclean was founded in 2016 with the corporate vision of "Redefine, for better oral care". Oral health is a key indicator of overall health, well-being and quality of life (Source: World Health Organization), so in alignment with our vision, our mission is to make everyone's oral health better and easier by leveraging cutting-edge technology and smart solutions.

Studies reveal that 90% of individuals miss certain areas during their brushing routine, leading to plaque accumulation and potential oral issues (Source: Oclean Lab database with over 200 million brushing behaviour data). At Oclean, we are driven by meticulous research and problem identification, aimed at developing solutions that empower users to enhance their oral health.

q book: JOSHUA FOX WHAT YOU INTO?

WHAT YOU INTO? Sex, sadness and celebrity scandals Joshua Fox

Published by Echo on October 29 in trade paperback priced at $34.99 ($12.99 E-Book)

'What you into?'
'I can host if ur looking?' 'What you into?'
'Do you like straight married men?' 'What you into?'
'Wanna meet in the bushes at the park?'

So many messages and not a single one asked how I was – or even asked my name. After a few minutes of bleak scrolling, I realised the only things I'm into are basic manners, commitment and being happily married. Which I also realised I wouldn't be finding on here. Still, that didn't stop me going off to meet the ninth stranger to slide into my inbox after finding myself getting sadder and sadder as each anonymous proposition pinged my way.

I regretted going before I even left my house.

Raw, moving and savagely funny, What You Into? is Josh Fox's autobiographical account of his spiral into the Grindr world of casual sex, hook-ups and dating apps following the break-up of his marriage. He documents this journey diary-style, chronicling the often weird, at times dark world of casual sex as he navigates his grief and anger through the consumption of men – only to discover that he too is being consumed by the process. Fox's unflinching account of his descent into sex addiction, his struggle with depression, and his search for a way back, is framed within the broader background of his life. He shares his difficult upbringing in a housing estate in Manchester, and gives a self-critical commentary on his media career (and his complicated relationship with 'celebrity'), from his time as a teenage YouTube star and paparazzo through to his work in Australian radio.

What You Into? is a story of the push and pull of addiction, the power of compulsion over shame, the search for healing through destruction – set against the need for love and the desire to feel alive.

Joshua Fox is best known for trying to be funny on social media, oversharing on Australian radio and being unashamedly open about his sex life, sexuality and the struggles of being a gay man in the age of Grindr and endless hook-up apps. Born in Manchester, he started his career as Britain's youngest paparazzo photographer at the age of 16 before becoming a tabloid journalist at Now magazine, The Sun and Daily Mail Australia. During this time, he was frequently conflicted about crossing the very fine line between entertainment and exploitation, and would often question his moral compass while mingling with the likes of Taylor Swift and Paris Hilton. After relocating to Sydney in 2017, he built a following by sharing his videos of crashing Married at First Sight weddings, joining The Kyle & Jackie O Show as producer Yeah But No But Josh, and becoming an unlikely mental health advocate. Joshua also finds it quite cringe writing about himself in the third person, as he is doing right now on this page, so apologises for this intro, but his publisher said he had to do one.

q adventure: with EVERYTHING TO SEA

Naked Bliss in Bali

Experience freedom through two of life's most liberating experiences: travel and nudity. Clothing-optional vacations offer the perfect blend of both. In the company of like-minded men, you engage in activities that become even more enjoyable without clothing. Picture yourself in a state of blissful relaxation, as nature intended, lounging on the terrace of a luxurious Bali villa.

EVERYTHING TO SEA

When considering nudist destinations, Bali might not immediately spring to mind—Europe, Australia and the U.S. often dominate this scene. However, with its lush landscapes, spiritual atmosphere, and welcoming culture, Bali provides the perfect backdrop for a clothing-free holiday. While the island may not boast an extensive nudist scene, it offers a fresh take on naturism. Everything To Sea provides a private sanctuary within an enclosed space where nudity is both embraced and celebrated. For those in Australia or New Zealand, Bali is easily accessible.

As experts in curating nude-friendly experiences, Everything To Sea has designed The Naked Paradise Villa as a haven for travelers seeking the bliss of nudity in one of the world's most beautiful islands. They've uncovered Bali's best-hidden gems, know the ideal times to visit, and understand how to ensure the experience remains culturally respectful.

A Hidden Paradise

The villa's exact location remains a well-kept secret until booking. Everything To Sea prioritizes guests' safety and privacy above all else. But here's a little hint: the villa sits atop cliffs overlooking the Indian Ocean. Designed to provide breathtaking views at every turn, the villa is staggered across several levels, ensuring that guests enjoy unobstructed vistas of sunsets and the vast, glistening sea.

The villa infuses traditional Balinese architectural DNA. Instead of one large structure, it comprises several beautifully appointed pavilions connected by winding paths. Twelve guest rooms, each elegantly designed with air-conditioned comfort and ensuite bathrooms, provide the option to share space with fellow travelers or enjoy the privacy of your own retreat.

Three tranquil pools reflect the vibrant blue skies above, while whirlpools and plush gazebos offer spaces for quiet contemplation. Several outdoor "living rooms" provide areas to lounge and socialize with other guests, and Zen-inspired water gardens, complete with fish and turtles, add to the calming ambiance. A cascading water wall and the distant sound of crashing waves provide the soundtrack for your stay.

For those seeking even more indulgence, dedicated massage spaces and a fully equipped gym cater to active guests. Whether you're soaking in the jacuzzi, enjoying panoramic ocean views, or exploring the villa's scenic pathways, every aspect of The Naked Paradise Villa is designed to connect you with nature in the most luxurious way possible.

Being nude in this space promotes camaraderie, self-expression, and personal freedom. Everything To Sea fosters acceptance and respect. Guests share an unspoken bond, encouraging easy conversations, genuine laughter, and deeper connections as social barriers fade away. While some may tout alcohol as a "social lubricant," we believe that being naked is the true catalyst for authentic social interaction.

While gay men often embrace this experience, The Naked Paradise Villa welcomes everyone, regardless of sexual orientation. It's a gay-friendly space where diversity is celebrated, and all guests are encouraged to feel comfortable and free to be themselves. The staff at Everything To Sea are seasoned in creating an inclusive environment. Whether you're an experienced nudist or a first-timer, you'll find a warm, accepting atmosphere that supports your journey.

Exploring Bali Beyond the Villa

While the luxurious setting of The Naked Paradise Villa offers a sanctuary for relaxation, guests can also explore the rich culture and stunning landscapes of Bali through a variety of curated excursions. Each day, you'll have the freedom to choose from two distinct types of activities. There's always something new to experience, whether you're visiting for the first time or returning for another adventure. Please note also during the excursions, you need textile as we're going to be in the crowded area.

For first-timers, Famous Activities offer a chance to experience Bali's most iconic sites. Embark on a trek through the lush landscapes, or take a jeep ride up a mountain, where breathtaking views await at the summit. If you're seeking a more thrilling experience, river rafting through Bali's scenic rivers offers an exciting way to immerse yourself in nature. A visit to the sacred forest provides a glimpse into Bali's spiritual heart, where ancient trees and mischievous monkeys share the landscape with revered temples.

For those who are eager to discover Bali's hidden gems, the Off-The-Beaten-Path Activities offer a more intimate exploration of the island. Visit a dilapidated royal mansion, where echoes of Bali's regal past still ring, or spend the day at the island's chill beach, a lesser-known stretch of sand perfect for quiet reflection or sunbathing. You can also explore local crafts by visiting artisans who help you create intricate traditional wood or metal carvings, or rejuvenate your spirit at a healing waterfall.

Alternatively, if you prefer a more relaxed naked day, you can always choose to unwind and enjoy the villa's amenities, as the excursions will require proper clothing. The Naked Paradise Villa will take place on May 6 - 12, 2025 and October 5 - 11, 2025.

About Everything To Sea

Everything To Sea is a travel operator offering clothing-optional experiences that celebrate freedom and body positivity. They welcome men from all walks of life, providing an inclusive environment for both experienced naturists and first-timers. As members of IGLTA, they ensure a gay-friendly space that's open to all, fostering connections among travelers. The Naked Paradise Villa in Bali embodies this philosophy. Beyond Bali, Everything To Sea also organizes trips in Spain, France, Thailand, and sailing adventures in The Coral Triangle.

For more information about Everything To Sea and their trips calendar, you can check www.everythingtosea.com

NAKED AND CHILL

One week of a vacation with men, naked and chill. A blissful array of activities, from the most famous things to do, to things off-the-beaten-path. The villa and sailing trips that often create friendship within like-minded men in the high-quality clothing-optional properties in Indonesia, Thailand, Spain, and France.

Upcoming Trips:

- The Spectacular Naked Sail: October 14 – 20, 2024
- The Naked Thai Villa: January 28 – February 3, 2025
- The Naked Canary Island Villa: April 24 – 30, 2025
- The Naked Paradise Villa: May 6 – 12, 2025
- The Spectacular Naked Sail: May 16 – 22, 2025
- The Naked Canary Island Villa: August 21 – 27, 2025
- The Naked French Villa: September 1 – 7, 2025

q tour: EUROVISION ON TOUR IN OZ

I am a mix of everything and I feel very privileged, you know, I can touch every culture, yeah. I'm born in Italy but I keep the tradition of my family and I travel the world and do the best work ever. yeah, I feel like it.

Italian, African host and all-round really lovely person, Senhit and I spent half an hour together on Zoom to talk about the upcoming EUROVISION ON TOUR, her involvement, her support of our community, and life in general. The schedule being what it is, Senhit was in the back of her car en route to rehearsals and I was perched in front of my new Dell Precision 3520, navigating Zoom for the first time on a WINDOWS laptop.

So, how did you get involved with this Eurovision tour, which is obviously a massive exercise?

Yeah, I mean, it's the first experience for me as a tour, as for Eurovision. And it's very hectic, because I have a double role: I'm a singer and I will be hosting the show.

And it's the first time in Australia - many beautiful things will happen. So I'm very excited. And to be still again in this Eurovision bubble is a blessing, you know, in this Eurovision family.

Generally speaking, people who are passionate about niche markets, for the one of a better word, have a reason. So your support of the LGBT community, as much as it's obviously very well needed around the world, is there a personal reason or is it simply because you think that everyone should be dedicated?

Exactly, the second one, everybody. I think it's so normal for me, know, it's so, how do you say in English, like a mentor? It's something that must be, you know, so comes very, in a simple way for me, and it's not only about personal. I think it's something that everybody has to do it, you know. I feel more privileged because I have a microphone with me and I can say something you know I have this amazing gift and I can see but I can say something too so I think it's something that everybody has to do in in some ways and your vision generally speaking is fairly good with that diversity stuff isn't it? Yeah, absolutely.

I think Eurovision is an event where you can feel safe, like in a comfort zone. It's good and lately I saw the difference between 10 years ago and now when I did for the first time Eurovision in Dusseldorf then how they've grown in authenticity and support. It's very cool for the community.

For me it was like, it's not only about work, it's about as a human being. I grew up a lot with Eurovision. I understand so many things and I appreciate more the effort that the Eurovision put in this project. I feel like what can people expect when they go to this wonderful tour? Everybody thinks that it's a huge party, but it's like hard because it's a big competition.

You can feel the competition, but at the same time you enjoy being around amazing people from different culture and everything. You have to work hard every day with rehearsals and then interviews and the like representing your country.

So you have to understand that you have a country behind you that supports you and expect something from you. So this is where I was very lucky. I was very blessed four years ago when finally after a long time I put summer in on the finals. So because we are the tiny small country in the competition I was very, very happy. But yeah, everybody think that, you know, Eurovision is silly event or whatever.

So what can people expect when they go to EUROVISION ON TOUR?

It's not like a competition, it's like a celebration of Eurovision, you know, with many, many artists that will show you the power of this show. And for the first time we come in Australia. Unfortunately, we don't have much time to enjoy Australia because it's like one city after another, from Brisbane to Melbourne to Sydney. I hope I will stay in Sydney like... 15th of November, yes. Exactly, like one after the other.

Everybody told me that Melbourne is much better but anyway so one step and a half I mean I start with Sydney and then we'll see.

In a gay context I guess they did a survey many years ago about gay people who live in Sydney and Melbourne and essentially if you were single and young you lived in Sydney. Once you found a partner and settled down you move to Melbourne.

aha okay I got you I got you

Thank you so much for your time.

I thank you Brett and we will see each other in Melbourne on the 15th okay.

I would love to.

q life: with GABRIEL TABASCO

Gabriel Tabasco: The Greek Ambassador's Son
Chapter 8: Three Daddies and a Twink

The recipe for the perfect spit roast includes:

One younger man

Three daddies of varying tastes: savoury, spicy and sweet

Plenty of sizzling hormones

Some alcohol for lubrication of the sense

Some lubricant for lubrication of the hole

Allow the event to simmer on a hot summer evening of at least 37 degrees centigrade

Add a generous sprinkling of saucy fantasies

Ensure to cook with vigorous gyrating and thrusting motion from all participants involved

And do not forget to include a fair amount of lubricant

Et voila! You will have prepared a perfect spit roast! Make sure to share the recipe!

I spent most of my summer with the Shipping Magnate, having sex with him and travelling around the Greek islands. But I saw less and less of the Bull, who I enjoyed having sex with, as usual, on a chair, in the middle of the kitchen. During those sessions I could feel every movement of the Bull's penis in me and I came in buckets with him. This was a feeling I did not often have with the Shipping Magnate. The Bull knew this and liked to be reminded of it, especially as he fucked me.

'How big is his cock?' the Bull would ask me, biting on my ear. 'Not as big as yours,' I would gasp. 'Is mine the biggest?' he would say, speeding up the pace of his thrust. 'Yes,' I would add, biting his shoulder.

'His cock is not as big as mine, is it?' he asked as he drilled hard into me. I would moan 'no'. He then, not only wanted me to continue saying how big his dick was but also make comments about the Shipping Magnate's. I couldn't tell if talking about other men's dick turned him on or if it was because he wanted to hear how big he was in comparison to his perceived competitors.

'I'm nine inches. How big is he?' he would ask gasping, fucking me.

'Smaller.'

'How much?' he would thrust.

'Like five inches.'

'Ha ha,' he would say, pushing harder into me, making me moan.

'How's his girth? Thin?'

'Yes. By half your size.'

'Oooh....'

After I would talk about all the measurements and sizes he would ram it in further causing me to ejaculate. After our hot session he would become another bulky, hairy Greek man to whom I had little to say. Over time, he realised that I was closer to the Shipping Magnate and resented my friendship with him. He knew we were spending time together and felt a little jealous, assuming I was with him for the money.

The Fireman also left slighted by his friend the Shipping Magnate, especially since he introduced him to me, but it was too delicate a subject to broach. It was obvious that I had more in common with the Shipping Magnate than with either the Fireman or the Bull. One day, dazed by too much champagne I brought up the option of a threesome to the Shipping Magnate.

'But who do you know who is interested?' he asked.

'I think I can put something together,' I said.

A week later I had somehow arranged for a sex session with Aristo the Shipping Magnate, Gary the Fireman and Yianno the Bull, the latter of the three arrived at my apartment dressed in a black leather jacket having arrived on his motorbike. No doubt he wanted to act like the Alpha Male.

Until then Yianno had not met the other two men so at first the situation felt a little awkward. Conversation over drinks: (beer, the Fireman; champagne, the Shipping Magnate; and whiskey, the Bull) was stilted and uncomfortable, filled with long silences and fake smiles. Initially I began to regret bringing the Bull into the sexual circle. Compared to the Shipping Magnate he seemed tougher and rougher. The phrase "like a bull in a china shop" sprang to mind. By contrast the Shipping Magnate seemed like the evident loser if a fight of fists ever broke out with any of the men.

It felt like the clash of Titans with each man trying to exert his own domination on the situation; the Bull with his hairy, hulking manliness, the Fireman with his sporty, save-the-world attitude and the Shipping Magnate with his suave, gentleman finesse. What did that make me? The barely-there bottom? The piggy in the middle about to be spit-roasted?

After our third round of drinks which we sipped on the balcony, the Shipping Magnate decided to get things started and started touching my ass. We all went upstairs and undressed. The Bull stood there with his penis that was soft but huge; the Fireman stood beside him with his toned frame and penis that was already erect as was the Shipping Magnate's, which pointed upwards like a small tower block amid skyscrapers. In comparison to the other two men, the Shipping Magnate had the smallest penis but trimmest physique. Hours with a personal trainer made a big impact but he could not change the shape of things that mattered most. He realised this when glancing at the Fireman and especially at the Bull, who was larger than him with a flaccid penis than the Shipping Magnate was with an erect penis.

I suggested getting into the train position, where one man fucks the man in front of him. It was then that we realised that all three daddies were tops. Standing there naked it looked like a comedy sketch: three naked men in their 40s towering above a 20-something man discussing who should go where and in which order. So it was decided: we would try double penetration, the Fireman and the Shipping Magnate would fuck me simultaneously as I would suck the Bull's cock.

'It's a DPSR,' said the Bull.

'What?' said the Shipping Magnate who was used to acronyms, which were common in his line or work. However a DPSR was something new to him.

'A Double Penetration Spit Roast,' clarified the Bull. 'A double penetration is...'

'I know what that is,' said the Shipping Magnate, 'but a spit roast? What's that?'

'It's what we'll do to Gabriel now. He will get fucked through the ass and suck on my cock. Like a pig on a spit roast,' laughed the Bull.

As that ridiculous conversation raged on, the Fireman was on the bed having made himself comfortable amid the bed's many pillows. I laid on top of him and gently eased his penis into my hole. By then the Bull was fully erect and the Shipping Magnate was ready to go. The Fireman was firmly inside me, confirming it by thrusting a few times. The Shipping Magnate then, laying on top of me began to make his way into my hole. It took longer than expected. I was tighter than I thought I was. I imagined that the Bull had enabled me to be able to take a larger-than-average penis, but one big penis is different from one average and one small penis inside me at the same time.

The Shipping Magnate, leaning over me, kissed me in an attempt to relax me as he pushed his cock into my hole. The initial moment of penetration was the hardest and the fact that we were wearing condoms did not make it easier. With patience and lube and with the encouragement of the Bull who spanked the Shipping Magnate on the ass a couple of times teasingly, (or in order to show who was boss), finally got fully inside of me.

'I can see your little hole from here,' the Bull said only half in jest to the Shipping Magnate, as he peered over at the sexual sandwich.

'Bet it's not hairy as yours,' said the Shipping Magnate to the Bull, already getting into position over my ass.

'Yours definitely isn't a hairy ass mate,' the Bull said. 'You got a twink ass for a daddy. Mine's a man's ass,' and flexed it for good measure.

The Shipping Magnate lent a few thrusts into me and slowly got the engine going before the Bull knelt at the head of the bed. Now, having taken his time, his cock fully erect entered my month.

'Your balls are dangling on my head,' said the Fireman to the Bull, 'and I can see your asshole man,' he said in irritation.

'And that turns you on right?' said the Bull as I sucked on his dick.

'Come on Gary,' said the Shipping Magnate now beginning to thrust. 'Start fucking him too.'

The Fireman was still uncomfortable about the Bull's hole inches above his head but began getting into the rhythm. He seemed to forget that he was inside me since he was within easy sight of a butch man's large buttocks, which he did not find attractive. Snapping out of his irritation he began thrusting harder and harder until the Shipping Magnate and the Fireman found their rhythm and began fucking me in unison. Random moans emanated from them every so often. At times it seemed as if they were trying to outdo each other with the sounds they made.

I sucked on the Bull's large cock with the same rhythm as I was being fucked. All four of us worked as one machine. It seemed that the men let go of their rivalry and enjoyed the act, which lasted over an hour. All of us wanted to prolong the end of the event but at one point, as all our balls tightened we had to let go.

First to come was the Fireman who broke off from our uniform rhythm and raced ahead pumping fast. A few moments later the Shipping Magnate was inspired by him and started pumping away. They both came seconds from each other and there was a crossover moment where both were moaning loudly as they came into their condoms.

'So soon?' said the Bull, with a laugh, again only half joking.

The Shipping Magnate took his dick out of my ass first and then gently helped me get off the By the Fireman's dick. They trotted off together, going off to the bathroom to clean themselves up.

The Bull then put on one of his extra-large condoms. I got into all fours as he mounted me ready to be spit-roasted in the reverse order. I was going to get fucked by the Bull while I would suck the Shipping Magnate's and the Fireman's cocks; either both in my mouth or one after the other. Having two penises in me already made it a lot easier for the Bull to put his huge, fat penis inside. We were already beginning our session of sex as the Shipping Magnate and the Fireman came back in.

'Wait for us,' the Shipping Magnate said, more out of rivalry than fearing he would miss out. He clambered on the bed in front of me. Like the previous session with their cocks in my ass, now the Shipping Magnate and the Fireman had their cocks in my mouth. Another hour and the two of them had come once again in my mouth, as did the Bull, in my ass.

That summer we had a few more sex sessions, either the four of us together or in various formats such as with the Fireman and the Shipping Magnate and I on the yacht (the Shipping Magnate fucking me and me sucking the Fireman off). I occasionally met the Bull for a mad sex session but our relationship did not develop a deeper friendship.

By the end of the summer I wanted to concentrate on my last year in school and on finding a boyfriend while the Shipping Magnate had to focus on his law firm expanding in other markets. The Fireman went back to Wales and I saw him less and less while the Bull wanted to meet other boys and chose to drill into them instead.

It was fun while it lasted, the perfect summer escapism, but as the French say "toutes les bonnes choses ont une fin".

Three daddies, wow! Wasn't one enough
From the spit-roasting it's evident you like it rough
You'll act like a whore, letting them use you like a toy
You got in every position, from doggy, to missionary and reverse cowboy

GAYLORD BLADE

Before we shag, you need to know...

the Navy genetically converted my muscle tissue to erectile tissue and I can become ALL penis at will in war, this would terrorize sailors as most fear another man's penis ...

only problem, I become all penis when I'm sexually aroused, too!

No sweat. When I'm sexually aroused I can handle a battleship!
